

Efforts by West County environmentalist Bob Sharp, pictured nearby the Laguna de Santa Rosa in Sebastopol, resulted in the formation of an organization dedicated to preserving Northern California's second largest freshwater marsh system. Sharp encourages people to become informed about and involved in environmental preservation.

Let's make every day Earth Day. Let's keep these problems in mind in all our activities."
 — Bob Sharp

April 20, 1994

94.10

Pa. 11